Doing work when funds furnished by persons.

4. For effecting any such work or improvements as aforesaid with funds provided by persons desirous of having the same effected. 55 V. c. 42, s. 612 (4).

The council of every municipality which has not passed a by-law within and under the provisions of section 682 of this Act shall also provide, in connection with all sewers, the cost of all culverts and other works necessary for street surface drainage, and also the cost of that part of every such work, improvement or service which is incurred at and is chargeable in respect of street intersections, and also that part thereof done or made opposite real property which by any general or special Act is exempt from special or local assessment. 55 V. c. 42, s. 612 (5). SPECIAL PROVISIONS AS TO ASSESSMENTS FOR LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS.

(1) As to Sewers.

(2) Where in order to afford an outlet for the sewerage and drainage of real property other than that fronting or abutting upon the street in which a sewer is constructed, such sewer has been constructed of a larger capacity than that required for the efficient sewerage and drainage of the real property fronting or abutting upon the street, the council may impose a special assessment upon any other real property benefited by the construction of such sewer in the manner provided by sections 671 and 672 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 620 (2); c. 43, s. 68. Where other property receives benefit of sewer as well as that fronting on street drained.

As to Pavements.

Private drains, water mains, service pipes, etc., may be included in cost of pavement.

(3) In case the council of a municipality is about to construct, renew or alter the character of a pavement on any street, highway or public place, or portion thereof, as a local improvement, the council may, before putting down such pavement, put in all necessary private drain connections from any existing drain or sewer upon such street or portion thereof to the street line on each side of the drain or sewer, and also all necessary water mains, and may assess and levy the cost thereof, and of any alterations of service pipes and stop-cocks, thereby necessitated, against the properties benefited thereby as part of the cost of the said local improvement, pursuant to the provisions of section 664 of this Act. 55 V. c. 42, s. 620 (3).

As to Corner and Irregular Lots.

No such remission or refund shall be made in any case where the work or improvement was made or constructed more than four years before the passing of the by-law authorizing the refund or remission. 55 V. c. 42, s. 620 (5).

Lands on same street unequally benefited.

(6) Where the lands on either side of a street, lane, or alley in a city, town or village are, in the opinion of the council, unfit from any cause for building purposes, and the council deems it inequitable to assess the same for local improvements at so high a rate as the building lots fronting on said street, lane or alley, the council shall, in all such cases, determine in what proportion the cost of any such improvement shall be borne by the lands on each side of said street, lane or alley, respectively. 55 V. c. 42, s. 620 (6). Assessments for local improvements in townships.

Where council declares whole municipality benefited by construction of bridge, etc

675. In any case where a council affirms by a two-thirds vote thereof that the constructing, erecting or making of any bridge, culvert or embankment, benefits the municipality at large, and that it would be inequitable to raise the whole cost of such improvement or work by local special assessments, the council may pass a by-law for borrowing money by the issue of debentures upon the credit of the municipality at large to provide as the corporation's share of the cost of such improvement or work an amount not exceeding one-half of the whole cost thereof; and no such by-law shall require the assent of the electors before the final passing thereof. 55 V. c. 42, s. 622.

Giving notice to repair maliciously.

(b) Should the Referee find that the notice to the municipality was given maliciously or vexatiously, or without any just cause, or to remove an obstruction which under this Act it was the duty of the party giving the notice to remove, he shall, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, order the costs to be paid by the party giving the notice.

Costs to be paid out of general funds.

engineer or surveyor, pass a by-law for maintaining the same at the expense of the lands and roads assessable for such work, and may assess the lands and roads in any way liable to assessment under this Act, for the expense thereof in the same manner, and to the same extent, by the same proceedings and subject to the same rights of appeal as are provided with regard to any drainage work constructed under the provisions of this Act. 57 V. c. 56, s. 76.

(2) If only part of the street, square, alley or lane is to be included in the assessment, the council may exclude from the assessment, property the owners whereof object to being assessed, if such property is situated at a greater distance from the hydrant nearest thereto, than is the property of every person signing the petition, and the council considers it unfair that such property should be assessed.

(3) If hydrants erected under this section are used for the general purposes of the municipality the corporation shall contribute for such use a fair amount out of the general funds, in relief of the said special rate, or make some other equitable allowance to the persons liable to such rate, in lieu of such contribution. 2. The council before submitting the by-law may require the petitioners to deposit with the treasurer of the municipality an amount sufficient to cover the probable cost of submitting the by-law to the electors, but not exceeding the sum of $150;

3. In the event of the by-law receiving the sanction and consent of a majority of the electors of the municipality, then the money so deposited shall be forthwith refunded to the petitioners;

4. Should the by-law be rejected by a majority of the electors of the municipality, then the money so deposited shall be forfeited to the municipality, or so much thereof as may be necessary to cover the costs of submitting the by-law;

5. The power of municipal councils shall not be deemed to be abridged by this Act, except as expressly stated herein;

Number of tavern licenses to be issued in municipalities.

In no case however shall this limit authorize any increase in any municipality in excess of the number of licenses issued therein for the year ending 1st day of May, 1897, until it appears from any census of Canada, hereafter made or any census subsequently taken, as provided by this Act that the population of the municipality has increased since the taking of the general census of 1891, so that in the opinion of the license commissioners a larger number has become necessary, and in no case shall a number of tavern licenses be granted in excess of the number limited by clauses (a) (b) (c) and (d) this subsection.

(2) Provided that in any municipality where the limit imposed by the preceding subsection will cut off four or more of the number of tavern licenses at present in force, such reduction shall take effect for the license year commencing on the first day of May, 1898, as to one half (or in case the whole number cut off is an odd number, then as to the even number next higher than one-half) of the number of tavern licenses so to be cut off, but for every license year thereafter the number of tavern licenses to be issued in such municipality shall not exceed the limit fixed by the said subsection. 60 V. c. 50, s. 1.

19.—(1) The number of the population which is to determine the number of licenses at any time under this Act shall be according to the then last preceding census taken under the authority of the Dominion of Canada, except where the license commissioners are at any time of opinion that, owing to a large increase of population since such census, an increased number of licensed taverns is needed for the convenience and accommodation of travellers; and in that case, if the license commissioners so certify, and the council of the municipality memorialize the Lieutenant-Governor for an increase of the number of licensed taverns, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize a new census to be taken under the authority of a by-law of the municipality and at the expense of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 194, s. 21. Extended licenses.

22. Upon application to any board of license commissioners, by any one or more persons within any municipality within the jurisdiction of such board for a beer and wine license, the board may, before the 1st day of May in any year, by resolution declare that any one or more of the tavern licenses which may be lawfully issued, and which are to be issued for the Beer and wine licenses may be issued.

Extent of liability of owner or keeper of dog. Rev. Stat. c. 90.

15.—(1) The owner of any sheep or lamb killed or injured by any dog shall be entitled to recover the damage occasioned thereby from the owner or keeper of such dog, by an action for damages or by summary proceedings before a Justice of the Peace, on information or complaint before such Justice, who is hereby authorized to hear and determine such complaint, and proceed thereon in the manner provided by The Ontario Summary Convictions Act in respect to proceedings therein mentioned; and such aggrieved party shall be entitled so to recover in such action or proceedings, whether the owner or keeper of such dog knew or did not know that it was vicious or accustomed to worry sheep.

Apportionment of damage.

(2) If it appears to the Court or Judge at the trial of any such action for damages, or to such Justice at the hearing of the said information or complaint before him, that the damage or some part of the damage sustained by such aggrieved party was the joint act of some other dog or dogs, and of the dog or dogs owned or kept by the person charged in such information or complaint, the Court, Judge or Justice shall have power so to decide and to apportion the damages sustained by the complainant, among and against the respective owners or keepers of the said dogs, as far as such owners or keepers are known, in such shares and proportions as such Court, Judge or Justice thinks fit, and to award the same by the judgment of the said Court or Judge, or in the conviction of such Justice, on behalf of such aggrieved person.

(3) When in the opinion of the Court, Judge or Justice, the damages were occasioned by dogs the owner or owners of which are known, and dogs the owner or owners of which are unknown, or the owner or owners of which have not been summoned to appear before the Court, Judge or Justice, the Court, Judge or Justice may decide and adjudge as to the proportion of the damages which, having regard to the evidence adduced as to the strength, ferocity and character of the various dogs shewn to have been engaged in committing such damage, was probably done by the dogs the owner or owners of which have been summoned to appear before the Court, Judge or Justice, and shall determine in respect thereof and apportion the damage which the Court, Judge or Justice decides to have been probably done by the dogs whose owners have been summoned, amongst the various owners who have been summoned as aforesaid.

(4) The same proceedings shall be thereupon had against any person found by the Court, Judge or Justice to be the owner or keeper of the dog which by such Court, Judge or Justice are found to have contributed to the damage sustained by the person aggrieved, as if the information or complaint had been laid in the first instance against such person.

(5) The Court, Judge or Justice shall not decide and apportion the damage against any person other than the person in the information or complaint first charged, nor award the same in the judgment or conviction without such other person having been summoned to appear before the Court, Judge or Justice, and having had an opportunity of calling witnesses.

(6) Appeals against any conviction, apportionment or order made by a Justice of the Peace under this section, shall be made to the Division Court holden in the division in which the cause of action arose, or in which the party complained against, or one of them, resided at the time of making the complaint; and the proceedings shall be the same as nearly as may be, as on appeals under The Act respecting Master and Servant. In case the owner of any sheep or lamb so killed or injured proceeds against the owner or keeper of the dog that committed the injury, before a Justice of the Peace, as provided by this Act, and is unable on the conviction of the offender, to levy the amount ordered to be paid, for want of sufficient distress to levy the same, then the council of the municipality in which the offender resided at the time of the injury shall order their treasurer to pay to the aggrieved party two-thirds of the amount ordered to be paid by the Justice under the conviction, in addition to the costs of the proceedings before the Justice and before the council. 1. Until varied or other provisions are made by by-laws passed under the authority of section 546 of The Municipal Act, this Act shall be in force in every township, city, town, and incorporated village in Ontario. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 1.

Liability for damage done.

2. The owner or occupant of any land shall be responsible for any damage caused by any animal under his charge and keeping, as though such animal were his own property, and the owner of any animal not permitted to run at large by the by-laws of the municipality, shall be liable for any damage done by such animal, although the fence enclosing the premises was not of the height required by such by-laws. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 2.

What animals to be impounded.

3. If not previously replevied, the pound-keeper shall impound any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig, or other cattle, geese or other poultry, distrained for unlawfully running at large, or for trespassing and doing damage, delivered to him for that purpose by any person resident within his division who has distrained the same; or if the owner of geese or other poultry refuses or neglects to prevent the same from trespassing on his neighbours' premises after a notice in writing has been served upon him of their trespass, then the owner of such poultry may be brought before any Justice of the Peace and fined such sum as the Justice directs. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 3.

Notice to clerk as to animals impounded.

4. Where any animal has been impounded the pound-keeper shall, within twenty-four hours, deliver to the clerk of the municipality a notice in writing containing a description of the colour, age and natural and artificial marks of the animal as near as may be. 60 V. c. 45, s. 78.

When the common pound is not safe.

5. When the common pound of the municipality or place wherein a distress has been made is not secure, the pound-keeper may confine the animal in any enclosed place within the limits of the pound-keeper's division within which the distress was made. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 4.

Statement of demand to be made to pound-keeper by impounder.

6. The owner of any animal impounded shall at any time be entitled to his animal, on demand made therefor, without payment of any poundage fees, on giving satisfactory security to the pound-keeper for all costs, damages, and poundage fees that may be established against him, but the person distraining and impounding the animal shall, at the time of the impounding, deposit poundage fees, if such are demanded, and within twenty-four hours thereafter deliver to the pound-keeper duplicate statements in writing of his demands against the owner for damages (if any), not exceeding $20, done by such animal, exclusive of such poundage fees, and shall also give his written agreement (with a surety if required by the pound-keeper) in the form following, or in words to the same effect:

Form of agreement with pound-keeper.

"I (or we, as the case may be) do hereby agree that I (or we) will pay to the owner of the (describing the animal) by me (A. B.) this day impounded, all costs to which the said owner may be put in case the distress by me the said A. B. proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me the said A. B. fails to be established."

R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 5.

When animal may be retained by distrainor.

7. In case the animal distrained is a horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle, and if the same is distrained by a resident of the municipality for straying within his premises, such person, instead of delivering the animal to a pound-keeper, may retain the animal in his own possession, provided he makes no claim for damages done by the animal, and duly gives the notices hereinafter in that case required of him. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 6.

Notice to owner if known.

8. If the owner is known to him, he shall forthwith give to the owner notice in writing of having taken up the animal. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 7.

9. If the owner is unknown to the person taking up and retaining possession of the animal, such person shall, within forty-eight hours, deliver to the clerk of the municipality a notice in writing of having taken up the animal, and containing a description of the colour, age and natural and artificial marks of the animal, as near as may be. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 8. If unknown, notice to clerk of municipality.

10. The clerk, on receiving such notice, shall forthwith enter a copy thereof in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall post the notice he receives, or copy thereof, in some conspicuous place on or near the door of his office, and continue the same so posted for at least one week, unless the animal is sooner claimed by the owner. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 9. Duty of clerk thereon.

11. If the animal or any number of animals taken up at the same time is or are of the value of $10 or more, the distrainor shall cause a copy of the notice to be published in a newspaper in the county, if one is published therein, and if not, then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county, and to be continued therein once a week for three successive weeks. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 10. If the animals are worth $10 or over.

12. In case an animal is impounded, notices for the sale thereof shall be given by the pound-keeper or person who impounded the animal within forty-eight hours afterwards, but no pig or poultry shall be sold till after four clear days, nor any horse or other cattle till after eight clear days from the time of impounding the same. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 11. Notice of sale. When sale may be made.

13. In case the animal is not impounded, but is retained in the possession of the party distraining the same, if the animal is a pig, goat or sheep, the notices for the sale thereof shall not be given for one month, and if the animal is a horse or other cattle, the notices shall not be given for two months after the animal is taken up. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 12. If animal is not impounded, but retained.

14. The notices of sale may be written or printed, and shall be affixed and continued for three clear successive days, in three public places in the municipality, and shall specify the time and place at which the animal will be publicly sold, if not sooner replevied or redeemed by the owner or some one on his behalf, paying the penalty imposed by law (if any), the amount of the injury (if any) claimed or decided to have been committed by the animal to the property of the person who distrained it, together with the lawful fees and charges of the pound-keeper, and also of the fence-viewers (if any); and the expenses of the animal's keeping. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 13. Notice of sale unless redeemed.

15. Every pound-keeper, and every person who impounds or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal in any common pound or in any open or close pound, or in any Keeper to feed impounded cattle, enclosed place, shall daily furnish the animal with good and sufficient food, water and shelter, during the whole time that such animal continues impounded or confined. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 14.

And may recover the value.

16. Every such person who furnishes the animal with food, water and shelter, may recover the value thereof from the owner of the animal, and also a reasonable allowance for his time, trouble and attendance in the premises. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 15.

In what manner such value may be recovered.

17. The value or allowance as aforesaid may be recovered, with costs, by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace within whose jurisdiction the animal was impounded, in like manner as fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach of any by-law of the municipality may by law be recovered and enforced by a single Justice of the Peace; and the Justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such value and allowance when not otherwise fixed by law, adhering, so far as applicable, to the tariff of pound-keepers' fees and charges established by the by-laws of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 16.

Other mode of enforcing.

18. The pound-keeper, or person so entitled to proceed, may, instead of such summary proceeding, enforce the remuneration to which he is entitled in manner hereinafter mentioned. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 17.

Sale, how effected, etc., and purchase money, how applied.

19. In case it is proved by affidavit before one of the Justices aforesaid, to his satisfaction, that all the proper notices had been duly affixed and published in the manner and for the respective times above prescribed, then if the owner or some one for him does not within the time specified in the notices, or before the sale of the animal, replevy or redeem the same in manner aforesaid, the pound-keeper who impounded the animal, or if the person who took up the animal did not deliver such animal to any pound-keeper, but retained the same in his own possession, then any pound-keeper of the municipality may publicly sell the animal to the highest bidder, at the time and place mentioned in the aforesaid notices, and after deducting the penalty and the damages (if any) and fees and charges, shall apply the product in discharge of the value of the food and nourishment, loss of time, trouble and attendance so supplied as aforesaid, and of the expenses of driving or conveying and impounding or confining the animal, and of the sale and attending the same, or incidental thereto, and of the damage when legally claimable (not exceeding $20,) to be ascertained as aforesaid, done by the animal to the property of the person at whose suit the same was distrained, and shall return the surplus (if any) to the original owner of the animal, or if not claimed by him within three months after the sale, the pound-keeper shall pay such surplus to the treasurer of and for the use of the municipality. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 18.

Disputes regarding demand for damages how determined.

20. If the owner, within forty-eight hours after the delivery of such statements, as provided in section 6, disputes the amount of the damages so claimed, the amount shall be decided by the majority of three fence-viewers of the municipality, one to be named by the owner of the animal, one by the person distraining or claiming damages, and the third by the pound-keeper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 19.

Fence-viewers to view and appraise damage.

21. Such fence-viewers or any two of them shall, within twenty-four hours after notice of their appointment as aforesaid, view the fence and the ground upon which the animal was found doing damage, and determine whether or not the fence was a lawful one according to the statutes or by-laws in that behalf at the time of the trespass; and if it was a lawful fence, then they shall appraise the damages committed, and, within twenty-four hours after having made the view, shall deliver to the pound-keeper a written statement signed by at least two of them of their appraisement and of their lawful fees and charges. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 20.

Proceedings where fence-viewers decide against the legality of a fence.

22. If the fence-viewers decide that the fence was not a lawful one, they shall certify the same in writing under their hands, together with a statement of their lawful fees to the pound-keeper, who shall, upon payment of all lawful fees and charges, deliver such animal to the owner if claimed before the sale thereof, but if not claimed, or if such fees and charges are not paid, the pound-keeper, after due notice, as required by this Act, shall sell the animal in the manner before mentioned at the time and place appointed in the notices. R. S. O. 1887, c. 215, s. 21.

If upon examining the locality the engineer is of opinion that the lands of owners upon whom notice has not been served will be affected by the ditch, he shall direct that the notice required by section 14 shall be served on such owners by the owner making the requisition and shall adjourn the proceedings to the day named in the notice for continuing the same for the purpose of allowing such owners to be present and to be heard upon the examination and taking of evidence. Examination by engineer.

(2) The engineer may adjourn his examination and the hearing of evidence from time to time, and if he finds that the ditch is required he shall, within thirty days after his first attendance make his award in writing (Form G), specifying clearly the location, description and course of the ditch, its commencement and termination, apportioning the work and the furnishing of material among the lands affected and the owners thereof, according to his estimate of their respective interests in the ditch, fixing the time for performance by the respective owners, apportioning the maintenance of the ditch among all or any of the owners, so that as far as practicable each owner shall maintain the portion on his own land; and stating the amount of his fees and the other charges and by whom the same shall be paid.

(3) In any case where a ditch is to be covered, the engineer shall in his award specify the kind of material to be used in the covered portion of such ditch. 57 V. c. 55, s. 16.

17. Should the engineer be of the opinion that the land of any owner will not be sufficiently affected by the construction of the ditch to make him liable to perform any part thereof, and that it is necessary or not, as the case may be, to construct the ditch across or into his land, he may, by his award, relieve such owner from performing any part of the work of the ditch and place its construction on the other owners; and any person carrying out the provisions of the award upon the land of the owner so relieved shall not be considered a trespasser while causing no unnecessary damage, and he shall replace any fences opened or removed by him. 57 V. c. 55, s. 17. which the municipality may be liable under the award as to the cost of the work in the same manner as taxes are levied upon the lands mentioned in the award and in the relative proportions of the estimated cost of the work to be done and materials furnished by the respective owners in the construction of such ditch; and such assessment shall in every case be determined by a supplementary award made by the engineer, and subject to appeal to the Judge in the same manner as other awards made under this Act.

(2) No agreement with a railway company shall be entered into by a municipal council under this section which will impose a special liability on the owners without the consent in writing, filed with the clerk of the municipality, of two-thirds of the owners liable for the construction of the ditch in respect to which such work on railway lands is to be undertaken.

(3) The cost of any such work on railway lands shall be exclusive of the sum fixed as the limit of the cost of the work imposed by section 5 of this Act. 57 V. c. 55, s. 21.

The municipality or each of the municipalities shall within ten days after the expiration of the time for appeal or after appeal, as the case may be, pay to the engineer and Judge and all other persons entitled to the same, their charges and fees or a portion thereof awarded or adjudged to be paid by the owners therein, and shall, if the same be not forthwith repaid by the persons awarded or adjudged to pay the same, cause the amount, with seven per cent. added thereto, to be placed upon the collector's roll as a charge against the lands of the person so in default, and the same shall thereupon become a charge upon such lands, and shall be collected in the same manner as municipal taxes. 57 V. c. 55, s. 27.

Letting work on non compliance with award.

28.—(1) The engineer at the expiration of the time limited by the award for the completion of the ditch shall inspect the same if required in writing so to do by any of the owners interested, and if he finds the ditch or any part thereof not completed in accordance with the award, he may let the work and supply of material to the lowest bidder giving security in favour of the municipality by which he was appointed, and approved by the engineer, for the due performance thereof within a limited time, but no such letting shall take place :—

(a) Until notice in writing of the intended letting has been posted up, in at least three conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the place at which the work is to be done, for four clear days.

(b) And until after four days from the sending of the notice by registered letter, to the last-known address of such persons interested in the said award as do not reside in said municipality or municipalities, as the case may be.

Extension of time for compliance.

(2) If however, the engineer is satisfied of the good faith of the person failing in the performance of the award, and there is good reason for the non-performance thereof, he may, in his discretion, and upon payment of his fees and charges, extend the time for performance.

Liability of person in default of doing work after proceedings begun.

(3) Any owner in default, supplying the material and doing the work after proceedings are begun to let the same, shall be liable for the fees and expenses occasioned by his default, and the same shall form a charge on his land, and if not paid by him on notice, the council shall pay the same on the certificate of the engineer, and shall cause the amount with seven per cent. added thereto to be placed on the collector's roll against the lands of the person in default to be collected in the same manner as municipal taxes.

Power to re-let.

31.—(1) If it appears to the engineer that rock-cutting or blasting is required, the engineer may cause the work of cutting or blasting and removing the rock to be done by letting the same out to public competition by tender or otherwise, instead of requiring each owner benefited to do his share of the work; and the engineer shall, by his award, determine the fractional part of the whole cost which shall be paid by each of the owners benefited, and upon completion of the rock-cutting or blasting and removal, shall certify to the clerk of the municipality by which he was appointed, the total cost thereof including his fees and charges, and the said clerk, and the clerk of any other municipality affected shall notify all the owners liable to contribute under the award, within their respective municipalities of the said total cost and the part to be paid by him, and unless forthwith paid, the same with seven per cent. added thereto, shall be placed on the collector's roll of the municipality in which his lands are situate, and the same shall thereupon become a charge against the land of the owners so liable, and shall be collected in the same manner as municipal taxes. Payment of contractor and engineer.

32. In case any owner during or after the construction of a ditch desires to avail himself of such ditch for the purpose of draining other lands than those contemplated by the original proceedings he may avail himself of the provisions of this Act, as if he were an owner requiring the construction of a ditch; but no owner shall make use of a ditch after construction, unless under an agreement or award, pursuant to the provisions of this Act. 57 V. c. 55, s. 32. Owners desiring to avail themselves of ditch after construction.

33. This Act shall apply to the deepening, widening or covering of any ditch already or hereafter constructed, and the proceedings to be taken for procuring such deepening, widening or covering, shall be the same as the proceedings to be taken for the construction of a ditch under the provisions of this Act, but in no case shall a ditch be covered, unless when covered it will provide capacity for all the surface and other water from lands and roads draining naturally towards and into it as well as for the water from all the lands made liable for the construction thereof. 57 V. c. 55, s. 33. (2) The inspection by the engineer and the proceedings for doing and completing the repairs required and enforcing payment of costs, fees and charges shall be as hereinbefore provided in case of non-completion of the construction of a ditch; but should the engineer find no cause of complaint he shall certify the same with the amount of his fees and charges to the owner who complained and also to the clerk of the municipality, and the owner who made complaint shall pay the fees and charges of the engineer, and if not forthwith paid by him, the same shall be charged and collected in the same manner as is provided for by this Act, in the case of other certificates of the engineer.

(3) Any owner interested in or affected by any ditch heretofore or hereafter constructed, which has not been constructed under any of the Acts mentioned in section 34 of this Act, nor under this Act, nor under any Act relating to the construction of drainage work by local assessment, may take proceedings for the deepening, widening, extending, covering or repair of such ditch in the same manner as for the construction of a ditch under this Act; provided always that the extent of the work and costs thereof and assessment therefor shall not exceed the limitations imposed by sections 5 and 6 of this [illegible]

This proviso shall apply only to that portion of the Province lying east of the County of Frontenac. 57 V. c. 55, s. 36; 58 V. c. 54, s. 2. Proviso.

37. 1. This Act may be cited as The Ontario Fisheries Act. 60 V. c. 9, s. 1.

Application of Act.

2. This Act, and the respective provisions thereof, and the regulations hereby authorized, shall apply to all fishing and rights of fishing, and all matters relating thereto, in respect of which the Legislature of Ontario has authority to legislate for the purposes of this Act, but shall not authorize, nor shall any lease, license or permit issued hereunder, or in pursuance of regulations made hereunder, authorize or be deemed to authorize, any interference with the navigation of any navigable water. 60 V. c. 9, s. 2.

Interpretation.

3. Where the following words and expressions occur in this Act, and in any regulations hereby authorized, they shall be construed in the manner hereinafter mentioned, unless a contrary intention appears:—

"Crown Lands." 1. "Crown Lands," shall mean and include, such ungranted Crown, or public lands, or Crown domain, as are within, and belong to the Province of Ontario, and whether or not any waters flow over or cover the same.

"Waters." 2. "Water," or "waters," or "Provincial water," or "Provincial waters," shall mean and include, such of the waters of any lake, river, stream or water-course wholly or partially within the Province over or in respect of which the Legislature of this Province has authority to legislate for the purposes of this Act, and whether flowing over or covering Crown lands or not.

"Fish." 4. "Fish," shall mean and include, every kind, species or variety of fish in respect of the catching or killing of which, within the Province, the Legislature of Ontario has authority to legislate.

"Bass." 7. "Bass," shall mean and include black bass, Oswego or large mouthed bass, and green bass.

"Close season." 8. "Close season," shall mean and include, the time in any year during which fishing for, catching or taking in any Provincial water, or killing, carrying away or buying or selling, or having in possession the kinds or species of fish hereinafter named, or any of them, is prohibited, or regulated by

FISHWAYS.

Fishways to be made where the Commissioner directs. 4.—(1) Every owner or occupier of a dam, slide or other obstruction across or in any stream where the Commissioner determines it to be necessary for the public interest that a fish pass should exist, shall provide such dam, slide or other obstruction with a durable and efficient fishway, which shall be maintained in practical and effective condition, in whatever place, and of whatever form and capacity will admit of the passage of fish through the same, and the place, form and capacity of the fish-way may be prescribed by any fishery overseer by notice in writing.

Penalty for violation. (2) Every such owner or occupier who violates the foregoing provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of $4 for each day during which any such obstruction remains unprovided with a fishway, after three days notice in writing to him.

Commissioner may pay half the cost. (3) Fishways shall be kept open and unobstructed and shall be supplied with a sufficient quantity of water to fulfil the purpose of this Act, during such times as are required by any fishery officer; the Commissioner may authorize the payment of one-half of the expense incurred by such owner or occupier in constructing and maintaining any fishway.

Commissioner may construct and recover the cost. (4) The Commissioner, in order to procure the construction of any fishway, pending the proceedings against any owner or occupier for the penalty imposed by this Act, or by any regulations made under the authority of this Act, may give directions to make and complete the same forthwith, and may authorize any person to enter upon the premises with the necessary workmen, means and materials; and may recover from the owner or occupier the whole expense so incurred, by action in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

6. The Commissioner may authorize to be set apart, and to be leased, any waters for the natural or artificial propagation of fish, and any person who wilfully destroys or injures any place so set apart, or used, for the propagation of fish therein, without written permission from a fishery overseer, or from the lessee or licensee thereof, or uses therein a fishing light, or other like implement for fishing, during the period for which the waters are so set apart, shall, for every offence, incur and pay, a fine not exceeding $100, with costs, and in default of immediate payment of such fine and costs, shall be imprisoned in the common gaol of the county wherein the offence was committed, or in which the conviction was made, for a period not exceeding three months. 60 V. c. 9, s. 21.

Control of fishing rights pertaining to granted lands may be assumed by Crown.

10. The Commissioner may, with the consent of the owners and for the purposes of management only, assume the control of fishing rights pertaining to granted lands fronting on or covered by any stream, river or lake, with a view to improving or leasing the same in connection with those pertaining to Crown lands fronting on or covered by the same stream, river or lake, and paying over to the private owners of such fishing rights, a proportionate share, to be determined by the Commissioner, of the rent received for the whole. 60 V. c. 9, s. 12.

Lessee not entitled to compensation in case of deficiency.

14. If, in consequence of any incorrectness of survey, or other error or cause whatsoever, a fishery lease comprises lands included in a fishery lease of a prior date, the fishery lease last granted shall be void in so far as it interferes or purports to interfere with that previously issued, and the holder or proprietor of the lease so rendered void shall have no claim for indemnity or compensation on account thereof. 60 V. c. 9. s. 7.

Rights of passage.

15. Every fishery lease shall be deemed to have been made and granted, subject to the right of passage to and from any waters in favour of the occupants (if any), under title from the Crown, of the lands in rear of those included in the fishery lease, whether so expressed in the lease or not. 60 V. c. 9, s. 9.

Appointment of guardians.

16.—(1) The Commissioner may, upon the request of any lessees of fishery leases, or without such request, appoint as many guardians as may be deemed necessary for the effectual protection of the fisheries, or rights of fishing in any waters; such guardians shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties, and especially, to prevent the taking or killing, or attempting to take, or kill, fish in the waters under their charge, by illegal means, or in an illegal manner, or at times when the taking or killing of fish is prohibited by lawful authority; they shall be employed for such length of time as the Commissioner considers necessary, and their services shall be paid for by the lessee or lessees in such proportions and at such times and in such manner as may be determined by the Commissioner.

(2) If thereunto required by the Commissioner, a lessee shall keep and maintain, at his own expense, within the limits granted to, or conferred upon him, by a fishery lease, and for such time or times as the Commissioner may in that behalf prescribe, one or more efficient guardians, whose duties shall, in all respects, be the same as those of the guardians in the preceding subsection mentioned. 60 V. c. 9, s. 10.

Return by lessees.

17. It shall be a condition of every fishery lease, that the lessee shall, as soon as possible after the close of every fishery season, transmit to the Department of Crown Lands, a statement of the number and weight of each species of fish caught in the waters affected by the lease; and default in so doing shall render him liable to forfeiture of his lease, and also to a penalty of not less than $10 nor more than $100, to be recovered at the instance of the Crown before any Stipendiary or Police Magistrate, or before any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the locality. 60 V. c. 9, s. 11,

19. Any fishery lease, or fishing license, or permit, held by any person convicted of any contravention of this Act or of any regulations made as aforesaid, may be annulled and cancelled by the Commissioner, and thereupon such person shall forfeit all his rights and privileges under such lease, license or permit, and shall not be entitled to, or have any claim or right to any indemnity or compensation in respect thereof. 60 V. c. 9, s. 14.

Liability of lessee for damage to lands included in lease.

20. Every lessee shall be answerable for damage done to the lands in the lease described and the timber growing thereon, or on adjoining lands, either by himself or his agents, or any person under his control, either from waste or from want of sufficient precaution in lighting, watching over or extinguishing fires; and it shall be incumbent on every lessee in case of damage caused by fire, to prove that all such precautions have been taken. 60 V. c. 9, s. 16.

21. A fishery lease shall entitle the lessee to institute in his own name, any action or proceeding against any person unlawfully trespassing upon, damaging or invading, the rights, property, premises or privileges, granted or demised by the lease and also to sue for and recover any damages sustained by him as such lessee. 60 V. c. 9, s. 15.
